All meetings will be held at the Melbourne Town Hall, Administration Building.

Management may arrange for meetings to be held in alternative community locations in the event that an agenda is significantly weighted towards a neighbourhood whether by number of agenda items relevant to that location, or by significance of items.

Any change in location will be communicated on Council's website, noticeboard and emailed to those who have registered to be notified of Council meeting changes and information.

Any meetings located at an alternative community venue will have a start time of 6pm.
